About

The Event

A beloved tradition for 44 years, That BIG Book Sale is Charleston's premier, 4-day event attracting over 4,000 book lovers. The annual event showcases a vast collection of more than 50,000 books, and provides an unique opportunity for the community to empower local literacy at Charleston's 18 public library branches and beyond!

More than just a book sale! While the primary goal of the BIG Book Sale is to support library programs and local literacy, it also serves as a celebration of literature and community spirit. Attendees have the chance to discover new authors, find rare editions, and meet fellow book enthusiasts. It's an event that brings people together, united by a shared passion for books and learning.

Event Goals

- RAISE FUNDS for the Charleston Public Libraries' 18 branches and their numerous community programs
- PROVIDE AFFORDABLE BOOKS to book lovers of all ages to encourage reading and learning
- PROMOTE LOCAL AUTHORS by giving them the opportunity for greater exposure and to showcase our local literary scene
- SUPPORT LOCAL TEACHERS by offering gift cards and coupons to help stock classrooms libraries

Audience

- 4000+ book enthusiasts
- Ages 1-100 - we have something for everyone
- 250+ volunteers who make this event happen
